

Sinclair

Broadcasting is not acting in the public interest by airing an anti-Kerry film in the weeks before the election. This act is a violation of the public trust.

This act is also an example of the danger to democracy of single-ownership of many media outlets and demonstrates why our television, radio and newspapers should be owned by many individuals and organizations, not a few.